

Prepare a coaching session for a junior Physical Education or Sports Education class at your school. You may be able to choose a sport you are familiar with but the activity may be dictated by the junior PE & Sports programs and timetables in place.

Consider carefully the coaching style that best suits you, the sport, and the age and skill of the students. In your planning, consider also the skills needed by a successful coach and how you will demonstrate these skills.

Please sign in or create a FREE account to download this resource